

"Multicultural is WISeR"

10th Annual Conference

Thursday, October 4, 2018
through
Sunday, October 7, 2018

WESTERN INSTITUTE FOR SOCIAL RESEARCH (WISR)

A Premiere Academic Institution for Social Change Since 1975

The Future of Transformative Learning at WISR Building Partnerships Locally and Beyond

RSVP to admin@wisr.edu.

This event is open free of charge to the public. Suggested donation of $20 for the entire three days.

Thursday, October 4, 2018, 6:00 pm to 8:00 pm

- Environmental Education, by Cara Judea Alhadeff, PhD, and Sudia Paloma McCaleb, PhD

Friday, October 5, 2018, 9:30 am to 8:30 pm

- Workshop—"Collaboration Means Family (Dynamics) Shows Up . . . Oh My!", by Ronald Mah, PhD.
- Prison Recidivism / Spiritual Abuse, by WISR Graduating Students, Master's in Psychology/Education
- Community Conversations / Personal and Global Trauma, by WISR Graduating Doctoral Students
- Peter Gabel, PhD, JD, on the Desire for Mutual Recognition*
- Film: "And Then They Came for Us"—Documentary on Japanese Americans During World War II

Saturday, October 6, 2018, 9:30 am to 8:30 pm

- Learning from the Experiences and Cultures of Others
- Scholar-Activists in Higher Education—The National Scene, WISR's History, and WISR's Future
- Building Partnerships--WISR as a Center for Transformative Learning & Social Change
- Celebrating WISR's Past, Present and Plans for the Future
- Film: "Viva Chile M"—Life and Work of the late Fernando Alegria, founding WISR Board member

Sunday, October 7, 2018, 11 am to 3 pm

- Therapist Activists,* by Rosa Reinikainen, WISR Doctoral Student
- Online and Digital Learning at WISR, Education and Action Locally and Globally

*CEU credits for MFTs, LCSWs, and LPCCs available for these sessions.